

AMICIZIA CRISTIANA

This weekend was organized by The Christian Friendship, or Amicizia Cristiana. Founded in 2007, we are a growing group of Roman Catholics, loyal to the Holy See, who seek to revive activities of the original Amicizia Cristiana (started by Fr. Nikolaus von Diessbach, SJ and carried on by Fr. Bruno Lanteri, OMV in late 18th/early 19th century Europe) in the United States and beyond.

We build fellowship with other Catholics (laity, clergy and religious) who exhibit a fervent desire to attain a deeper understanding of the teachings of the Church in their daily lives and rekindle the activity of Christian friendships. Our mission is to spread good Catholic books, media and enabling technologies; promote the Spiritual Exercises; celebrate our Catholic traditions; reignite the activity of good Christian friendships, building stronger friendship networks among laity, religious and clergy.
